Profession

Sukhvinder Sidhu is Certified Financial Planner<sup>CM</sup> Practitioner. He founded FinlifeCare Solutions as a specialist financial planning firm to provide customized service completely aligned with the client's best interest. The proprietary firm has been conceived of to focus exclusively on financial planning service which is not commonly available service in today's product sales dominated financial market. Details may be known at www.finlifecare.com

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Science (B.Sc) -- Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra
- Certified Associate of Indian Institute of Banking & Finance (CAIIB) -- IIBF, Mumbai
- Certified Financial Planner<sup>CM</sup> (CFP<sup>CM</sup>) – Financial Planning Standards Board India, Mumbai

Past Experience

Sukhvinder has previously worked for over 20 years in a leading public sector bank, gaining diverse knowledge in the financial field and good experience counseling individuals on their financial needs. He then took voluntary retirement from bank manager's post. It was because of his passion to work professionally and independently in the best interest of clients that he left his well-respected and secured job to become an Independent Financial Planner.

Belief & Mission

He believes that financial planning has come into being to ethically serve the families, including those not well off, bringing positive changes in their financial lives. He has set his mission to work to create most positive financial planning experience for clients and contribute to evolvement of the young profession of financial planning to the repute of any other profession like medicine or law. He has now started his blog www.finlifecare.com/blog to contribute to spreading financial awareness.

Specialties
